Love Is By Tia Kelly

It took a once-in-a-lifetime bond to teach her what love is, and a once-in-a-lifetime betrayal to show her what love is not... Love Is. A different kind of love story.

Diane Collins had big plans for her life, and hoops star Warren Scott was not among them. He doesn't want to be the face of the NBA, and she doesn't care that he is. His reluctance to be part of the limelight disarms her and the two embark on an unlikely friendship that becomes an even unlikelier romance.

Soon, his life is her life - filled with VIP treatment, parties and luxuries beyond Diane's wildest imagination. But Warren is harboring a secret, and once it's revealed Diane's decision to stay or go could change the very fabric of who she thought she was.

Editorial Review

Review

"Love Is creeps up on you and grabs hold of your heart before you realize its happening."

"I just finished reading Tia Kelly's Love Is and I am convinced that--hands down--this is the best novel she has ever written."

"These details were unobtrusively sprinkled throughout, reminding us that the action doesn't take place in an unspecified 'modern America' but in a very definite era... This kind of thing sets a book apart, and makes it clear that it was the product of thought, rather than an impulsive regurgitation of ideas expressed in a million other books before."

"This was a well-crafted, sophisticated, and highly emotive read--I was not expecting that. The story itself is honest and raw...and sweet and beautiful at the same time."

"Tia Kelly winds the reader with this tale."

"This book is the first in a while to bring about such wistful tears in me. I'm familiar with Tia Kelly's work, but nothing I've read so far prepared me for Love Is."

"This one is a game changer! Totally unexpected, stirring, heartbreaking, satisfying."
