Consequences and Repercussions (The K(no)w Series) (Volume 2) By E. Marie Sanders

Kyle and Avail have finally managed to become an exclusive couple while minding the important stipulation of reserving sex for a possible marriage and overcoming the distractions of an ex-boyfriend, ex-girlfriend, and others who have a vested interest in the both of them, but there are some things that are hard to ignore, like desire and babies. Intensely attracted to one another, Kyle and Avail find themselves with the perfect opportunity to break their vow and experience one another in a more intimate way when fate steps in and changes their world forever. Celeste, Kyle's ex-girlfriend, promised that she would get Avail back for taking Kyle away from her, and Grey's simmering affections prove to be the perfect place for Avail to seek refuge. Between counseling sessions, an unexpected opportunity, a charm on a necklace, and diminishing communication, Kyle accepts the inevitable and makes decisions that help him further grow into the man he seeks to be. Even so, Camden disregards the circumstances and continues to pursue Kyle more aggressively than before. Raine and Shea continue to be the rock Avail needs to be stable, but Grey seeks to add a level of comfort to her stability by sharing a personal view they both have in common. An almost identical Intersession schedule and summer opportunities draws Avail and Grey closer than ever, but Kyle runs just enough interference to make his presence known. Former distractions become major obstacles as each character deals with their own set of costs and penalties. This is E. Marie's third published novel, maintaining her desire to grab the reader in the very beginning and build momentum throughout the story in order to make the reading experience a joy for those who frown upon the pastime. Her other books include book one of The K(no)w Series and From a Writer's POV 2011 Favorite Book of the Year Winner, To K(no)w Avail, and Blindsided.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Having been born in Fayetteville, North Carolina, and raised in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, E. Marie Sanders claims to be a mixture of southern hospitality with northern know-how. She taught in the public school system for 12 years and has served as a youth pastor for the past 16 years, observing the habits of the age group she hoped to write for one day. The stories she told in classroom grabbed her reluctant readers' attention and guided her toward putting the stories on paper. Her story lines and ideas develop by combining a dash of urban real life with great storytelling fiction and imagination. E. Marie seeks to grab the reader, youth and adults alike, in the very beginning and continues to build momentum throughout the story in order to make the reading experience a joy for those who frown upon the pastime. Her first book, To K(no)w Avail, won the 2011 Favorite Book of the Year honors with From a Writer's POV Magazine. Her second book, Blindsided, is an Amazon.com Best Seller. Presently, she is an English Instructor at Robeson Community College in Lumberton, North Carolina, and has begun her doctorate work at Lesley University studying adult education. E. Marie is a National Board Certified Teacher and a member of the North Carolina Writers' Network and Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development. She and her husband Eric reside in Lumberton, North Carolina.
