Editorial Review

From School Library Journal

Gr 9 Up—Living in a supernatural community in Connecticut, Jessa is a normal young adult wolf shifter. When her estranged mother comes back to Connecticut with her omitted twin sister, everything Jessa has ever known is turned upside down. They both bear a Mark that could raise an evil dragon king and cause her best friends, the Compass brothers, to hunt them. When the Compasses are framed for murder and sent to Vanguard, they find other Dragon Marked children—children who were presumed dead. Will the brothers turn against all of the Dragon Marked? Narrator Dara Rosenberg deftly complements Lee's text. Her unique intonations draw listeners into Jessa's world and will help them to relate to the quirky characters. The plot is slow moving but saved by the well-developed mystery and intrigue elements. VERDICT Fans of mystery, fantasy, and dragons will enjoy.—Jessica Moody, Olympus Junior High, Holladay, UT
