Editorial Review

About the Author

Ryan Vet was raised in the suburbs of Chicago. As a young boy, Ryan dabbled with various entrepreneurial ventures ranging from the typical lemonade stand to a line of trading cards and a neighborhood newspaper. Raised in a Christian home, his father being the pastor of a mid-sized, Chicagoland church, Ryan sticks close to his faith roots and desires to inspire others to strengthen their walk with Christ. At age 15, Vet opened Digi Tech Studio (DTS) in 2005. DTS is a marketing company providing marketing and advertising services, social media marketing solutions, graphic design, web design and programming, and video production services. The task of juggling a wide-range of leadership positions in school from serving at his church to managing a Raleigh-based band, Flowers for Faye and as a teenage CEO has given Ryan many real-life experiences that he desires to share with others that share his passion to lead. Recently, Ryan has joined up with the non-profit organization, Clothe Your Neighbor As Yourself, as their Director of Communications. He specifically oversees marketing and branding efforts. Vet is currently attending Elon University and is majoring in Business Marketing. Ryan also loves to travel the world. He has been to hundreds of cities around the world including countries in five out of the seven continents. Some of these countries include Togo (W. Africa), Ghana, Bangladesh, Kuwait, China, Brazil, England and South Africa. His experiences both locally, nationally and abroad are shared on Ryan's travel blog.
