Editorial Review

About the Author

Brief Biography: For this author, there is no such thing as a brief biography. Here s a paragraph from under his photo on the back cover: Often described as easy-going, quick-witted, down-to-earth and an interesting conversationalist, Daneagle is one around whom, things are not dull for long. His unique narrative voice, reader-connecting characters, thought-provoking perspectives, earthy hyper-realism and raw honesty as a writer-artist speak for themselves. Editors have called him colorful --- disgruntled --- maverick --- gadfly. Daneagle says, Consider the absolute best teacher you ever had and why she or he deserves your high opinion. To me, those worthy of that title and any book worth reading strive to entertain while informing, educating, stimulating, in broad overlapping swipes of word-glue, making it stick. Those taking a class or time to read a novel deserve to walk away after the end glad they did and the better for it.
