Uncovering Ray (Ellery College) By Edie Danford

When the right love uncovers the wrong secrets...

Ellery College, Book 1

Hey, man—you a chick or a dude? Dealing with the same old boring question is a downer for college drop-out Ray Fayette, especially when it's asked by the low-tipping, over-privileged students at the Ellery Diner.

When six-foot-five, muscle-bound straight arrow Wyatt Kelly publicly smacks down a fellow frat brother for caveman behavior, Ray's interest is sparked. Wyatt's not-so-subtle attraction sparks a few other things too.

But getting to know Wyatt proves dangerous. His sexy smiles and smart questions slide under even Ray's prickliest defenses. Worse, his academic mentor happens to be Ray's ex-stepfather, the dictatorial jerk who just kicked Ray out of his house. Again.

Wyatt suggests a housing arrangement that has surprising appeal—there's space available at his frat house—but he's unaware just how complicated Ray's "identity issues" are. Ellery College kicked out Ray for a reason—a reason that could deep-six Wyatt's academic career and Ray's newly hopeful heart.

Warning: Contains hot make-out sessions in a cool pickup, badass pool skillz, and a syllabus that may include "Nonbinary Sexolosophy: 101".
